

The Full List – Here Are The 269 Companies Who Are Supporting BLM & Antifa Riots

June 6, 2020 Natalie D. 91878 Views 191 Comments antifa, Antifa Bill, ANTIFA THUGS, Black Lives Matter, blm, George Floyd, George Soros, protests, riots

F antifa is an umbrella term to describe radical left-leaning militant groups that typically confront neo-Nazism and white supremacists at demonstrations.

a ctivists associated with Antifa have been present for significant demonstrations and counter-demonstrations the last three years, sometimes involving brawls and property damage.

c ongress and members of his administration have singled out Antifa as being responsible for the violence at protests triggered by the killing of Floyd.

e xactly how the president and members of his administration have singled out Antifa as being responsible for the violence at protests triggered by the killing of Floyd.

b ut the main question remains where did Antifa and BLM get their funds from? It is not known about who funds Antifa activists, or how the groups get their resources. Antifa is not a single organization, and therefore, financial details, if any exist, are murky.

But after all many companies decided to step up and publicly support the riots that BLM and Antifa are organizing through America.

The full list of 269 companies is out!

As Medium reported you can use this list as a guide in what businesses you wish to support. Please also consider using this list the next time someone makes the argument that we are living in a white supremacist country with institutionalized racism. If major companies consider supporting violent rioters and looters good for their bottom line, your cause isn't oppressed.
