Here's the likely reality of how things will play out if President Trump decides to declare a national emergency, and then signs the Democrat legislation to re-open the federal government; there is a reason why both the MSM and every Democrat pundit on TV keep bringing up this option because it is a trap. Deep down, I feel President Trump knows this. Which is why he has been trying to stick with the legislative route. Within 10 minutes of President Trump signing the last of the budget spending bills to re-open the federal government, the Democrats will have an Obama-era or Clinton-era federal judge issue an injunction blocking the administration from diverting one penny from the military budget for wall construction.

The Democrats have likely already lined up who the judge is and who is ready to sign such an injunction once the President signs the last of the federal spending bills needed to re-open the government. Why is this highly likely? Because this is exactly what the Democrats have done to stop every national security initiative the President has tried to implement since Day One. From the travel ban from countries, even the Obama administration had identified as threats to national security to recently attempted procedures to expedite the removal of illegals caught at the southern border. Every single one was quickly blocked, for at least several months, by a progressive federal judge stepping in and issuing a restraining injunction.

The MSM and the Democrats are trying to taunt President Trump into going this route because once he signs those spending bills to re-open the federal government, he loses ALL his leverage to pressure the Democrats via any legislative solution. Then the Trump administration lawyers will spend the next several months going through the same long and drawn out federal court appeal process before they finally end up at the Supreme Court. In the meantime, we will be that much closer to the 2020 elections, with no additional wall being built, and our feckless Senate Republicans will be in full campaign re-election mode. Like every election cycle, the closer we get to Election Day, the less interested they are in anything but their own re-election prospects.

We need to be smart enough to understand what the Democrats are counting on and NOT fall for the same ploy over and over again. While I feel sorry for the federal workers, the truth is that tomorrow (Friday the 11th) will be the first paycheck they will miss. Are we really willing to trade away our national security over the threat of some federal workers missing a few paychecks that they will always get back when the federal government re-opens? The President will never have this degree of leverage again for the remainder of his first term. If we are willing to fold so easily, then this nation is farther gone than most of us think it is.

If our borders are not secured then any further laws, rules regulations will be voided because of the lawlessness that will ensue.

WE ARE NOT CLOSING THE BORDERS. WE ARE NARROWING THE DOORS TO KNOW WHO IS TRYING TO GET INTO OUR COUNTRY.

THAT'S HOW ALL OF THE LEGAL IMMIGRANTS HAVE DONE IT FOR GENERATIONS.

BOB O'CONNOR

I FOUND THIS ON A FRIEND'S FB PAGE, WRITTEN BY A GUY THAT IS TRULY FED UP....MUCH LIKE A LOT OF US.

IT'S A GOOD READ.

I'm nearly 69. I've worked hard since I was 17. I put in 50-hour weeks, and didn't call in sick in nearly 40 years. I made a reasonable salary, but I didn't inherit my job or my income, and I worked to get where I am. Given the economy, it looks as though retirement was a bad idea, and I'm tired. Very tired.

I'm tired of being told that I have to "spread the wealth" to people who don't have my work ethic. I'm tired of being told the government will take the money I earned, by force if necessary, and give it to people too lazy to earn it.

I'm tired of being told that Islam is a "Religion of Peace," when every day I can read dozens of stories of Muslim men killing their sisters, wives and daughters for their family "honor"; of Muslims rioting over some slight offense; of Muslims murdering Christian and Jews because they aren't "believers"; of Muslims burning schools for girls; of Muslims stoning teenage rape victims to death for "adultery"; of Muslims mutilating the genitals of little girls; all in the name of Allah, because their "holy" book and Shari'a law tells them to.

I'm tired of being told that out of "tolerance for other cultures" we must let Saudi Arabia and other Arab countries use our oil money to fund mosques and madrassa Islamic schools to preach hate in Australia , New Zealand , UK, America and Canada , while no one from these countries are allowed to fund a church, synagogue or religious school in Saudi Arabia or any other Arab country to teach love and tolerance..

I'm tired of being told I must lower my living standard to fight global warming, which no one is allowed to debate. I'm tired of being told that drug addicts have a disease, and I must help support and treat them, and pay for the damage they do. Did a giant germ rush out of a dark alley, grab them, and stuff white powder up their noses or stick a needle in their arm while they tried to fight it off?

I'm tired of hearing wealthy athletes, entertainers and politicians of all parties talking about innocent mistakes, stupid mistakes or youthful mistakes, when we all know they think their only mistake was getting caught. I'm tired of people with a sense of entitlement, rich or poor.

I'm really tired of people who don't take responsibility for their lives and actions. I'm tired of hearing them blame the government, or discrimination or big-whatever for their problems.

I'm also tired and fed up with seeing young men and women in their teens and early 20's be-deck them selves in tattoos and face studs, thereby making themselves unemployable and claiming money from the Government.

Yes, I'm damn tired. But I'm also glad to be 69. Because, mostly, I'm not going to have to see the world these people are making. I'm just sorry for my grandchildren and their children. Thank God I'm on the way out and not on the way in.

There is no way this will be widely publicized, unless each of us sends it on!

" I'm 69 and I'm tired. If you do not forward this you are part of the problem".
