

I wish I could remember the morning Libertarian radio guy's name in Texas. Who gave me the best ever come back line to any left wing un-logical statement or question. It was "So What".ie Your MAGA hat is racist. "So What" I'm triggered! "So What" So fun watching them melt...

I love the US constitution. Think the founding Fathers were right on the money. Bill of rights is spot on. And once you have Liberty, Prosperity, Freedom and fair governance there really is no where to 'progress' to. Dose that make me a Libertarian? Not sure. But we need to oust the Progressives from our town halls & school systems. As HQ of the S2 project I worry that people focus too much on what is going on at the federal level. A level that we have some sway, true. BUT. When the real war is going on at the Local level. We need to "TRUMP" our town/city halls and school systems.
